

540. My old Kentucky Home

Bew. M. Van Aken

The musical score is written in treble clef with a common time signature (C). It consists of five staves of music. The first staff begins with a repeat sign and is followed by lyrics. The second staff continues the melody and lyrics. The third staff includes a first and second ending. The fourth and fifth staves conclude the piece. Chord symbols are placed above the notes to indicate the harmonic structure.
